Current Status/Update
Met with 2 potential volunteers to get some ideas on the 'default' configuration for the neighborhood pages. The current plan is to offer a set of options ready to go for each, but then have a list of more advanced options that can be configured by Supercreative based on the Neighborhood Correspondent's plans for the page.
Neighborhood pages are live with Volunteer recruitment message up on each. This will be the default message until a neighborhood has a volunteer to manage it.
Neighborhood pictures are integrated into the site, except for one or two stragglers that are still being worked with digitally due to the nature of the monument not precisely working easily with the site layout.
There are roughly 5 people in different neighborhoods now who have expressed interest or been recruited to become Neighborhood Correspondent's and one neighborhood may have more than 1.
